School children throughout the country will take an important part in the national canvass for the Roosevelt Memorial Association. Exercises during that week will be held in most educational institutions, the effort, being to inspire the children with the Rooseveltian principles of fearlessness, honor and fair play.

In Indiana the school authorities have designated October 24 an Americantization Day in memory of the former President. George Ade, Booth Tarkington and Meredith Nichelson are collaborating in the programme.

The American flag, which is being borne through New York State under the auspices of the Memorial Association by Roy Scouts end schoolbey runners, will reach Manthattan October 23. The flag will be taken finally to the Rooseveltan principles of fearlessness, honor and fair play.
